

For Immediate Release: February 22, 2018

Contacts: Ami Bennitt, Motor Media for ArtsEmerson: 617.797.8267 | ami@motormmm.com
Rebecca Curtiss, A.R.T.: 617.496.2000 x8841 | 617.872.8254 | rebecca_curtiss@harvard.edu

 Media Advisory *****

What

Boston Mayor Martin J. Walsh to proclaim Wednesday, February 28, 2018 “Claudia Rankine Day” in the City of Boston.

Who

Boston Poet Laureate Danielle Legros Georges to present the Proclamation to Ms. Rankine at a post-performance reception on The White Card opening night, February 28, 2018.

Why

In celebration of opening her world premiere play The White Card, produced by American Repertory Theater and presented by ArtsEmerson at the Emerson Paramount Center through April 1, 2018, raising awareness and dialogue on race, privilege, and equity in America.

Mayor Martin J. Walsh with Claudia Rankine at her public dialogue “On Whiteness,” spring 2017. Photo: Kelly Davidson.

Where

Emerson Paramount Center’s Jackie Leibergott Black Box, 559 Washington Street, Boston

When

Wednesday, February 28, 2018 (approximately 9:30-10pm)

Other

About The White Card
About Citizen Speak
About Citizen Read
About Claudia Rankine

About Danielle Legros Georges
About P. Carl, PhD.
About ArtsEmerson
About American Repertory Theater

###